

Get involved at the childhood home of Adelaide Hunter Hoodless, a woman who worked tirelessly to advocate for women and families across Canada.

WE NEED YOU!

Volunteer opportunities include:

- Costumed Site Interpreters
- Garden & Grounds
- Archive & Collections Assistants
- Special Events
- High School Service
- Workshops & Presentations
- Demonstrators – spinning, weaving, etc.

Volunteers dedicating 40 hours or more are invited to a special recognition event.

Join us for our first
Volunteer Orientation
May 15, 7pm @ the Homestead

The Adelaide Hunter Hoodless Homestead is Owned and Operated by the WI Canada/
Federated Women's Institutes of Canada & is located at 359 Blue Lake Road in St. George, ON

Inquiries and Volunteer Applications can be made to Kristy by email at outreach@adelaidehoodless.ca